ABOUT KIM

Kim Woods, MBA and Evolutionary Astrology Master, also known as the Intuitive Business Strategist, teaches high-performing entrepreneurs to Know, Like and Trust themselves, creating radical levels of satisfaction in every aspect of their lives. Her revolutionary question of Do You Know, Like and Trust Yourself™, is the perfect thread that weaves intuition with success. Kim expertly pairs the ancient wisdom of astrology and sacred healing modalities with modern techniques delivered through simple and practical methods. She turns the well-known marketing concept of the Know, Like, Trust factor inside out, so instead of helping customers to Know, Like and Trust you, YOU Know, Like and Trust yourself.

Tapping into this inner knowing allows you to create highly sought-after personal, professional, and financial triumph. With countless master-level intuitive certifications paired with 25+ years of C-suite business experience and $65M+ in sales, Kim has an incredibly solid depth of field for combining business with intuition, creating shockingly transformative results.

Kim Woods, MBA and Evolutionary Astrology Master, also known as the Intuitive Business Strategist, teaches high performing entrepreneurs to Know, Like and Trust themselves in their businesses and daily lives. She has built multiple 7 figure brick & mortar businesses and is a former business consultant at Oracle.

She discovered the power of her intuition when she found out how little she Knew, Liked, and Trusted herself when her son was born with significant health issues. She had spent all of her time building a successful career based on someone else's definition of success, and had ultimately lost herself. The crisis with her son forced her to find herself again through relying on her knowing to defy the doctor's predictions for her son's mediocre quality of life, liking herself enough to marry ancient wisdom with western methods and not accept the doctor's plan to merely work around the issues, and trusting herself to see her strategies through for eight years until she saw complete transformation. With her son currently thriving, Kim uses what she learned then to create these results for her clients.

Kim is a contributor to Entrepreneur, Ohwabisabi and Wake Up with Marci and loves the ocean, currently living near the coast in Boston with her husband and two children.
